

The 21st Embassies of the World Dinner and Ball

The IWC proudly presents the 21st Embassies of the World Dinner and Ball (EDB) on Saturday, 25th March, 2017 in the iconic Hotel Metropol right in the heart of the city. The venue of the Ball is the marvelous Metropol hall with painted glass ceiling and marble fountain.

The IWC's 21st Ball is themed "THE ROARING 20s." Join us to recreate the era of Jazz and Swing.

What is the Embassies of the World Dinner and Ball

The EDB is one of the two major fundraising events of the IWC. All proceeds go to the charity projects in and around Moscow that are supervised and monitored by the IWC Charity Board. The main focus of these charity projects is long-term support and emergency care for children in need and people living below the poverty level.

Since its inception the EDB has grown into one of the most prestigious event on Moscow's social calendar. Guests are invited to have dinner in one of the embassies or Ambassadors' residences, a unique experience, thereafter which everyone gather at the Metropol for an exciting evening of dance, music and live entertainment. There is a grand Raffle with attractive prizes to be won.

Guests may choose to attend a dinner and the ball or go to the Ball only.

Tickets

Tickets are now available and can be bought at any of the IWC events – Meet and Greet, Coffee Mornings, Professional Women's Evenings (PWE) or through any Steering Committee members.

The price of the tickets is

Until the 12th of March, 2017 - Dinner and Ball – 10,000 rbls. Ball only – 7,000 rbls

From 13th March, 2017 onwards – Dinner and Ball – 11,000 rbls. Ball only – 8,000 rbls

For more information write to iwcedb@gmail.com

For Sponsorship possibilities please contact iwcsponsorship@gmail.com

